EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

September 5, 1958.

Hon. Allen Welsh Dulles,
2430 E St.,
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Sir,

On behalf of the American Friends of the Anti-Bolshevist Bloc of Nations, Inc. (AF ABN) we have the pleasure and the honor to extend to you the invitation to participate in the Second Congress of the AF ABN which will be held on September 20-21, 1958. The Congress will take place at the NEW YORKER HOTEL, Eighth Avenue and 34th Street, New York City.

The American Friends of the Anti-Bolshevist Bloc of Nations is an Association dedicated to the task of bringing a better understanding to the American people of the aims and work of the Anti-Bolshevist Bloc of Nations, the co-ordinating center of the national liberation movements of the peoples subjugated by Russia and Communism.

In case you, Sir, will find it impossible to participate in the entire program we will be honored by your presence at the Banquet or to have your message read on your behalf.

Your well known Anti-Communist stand will add greatly to the success of the Congress and render inspiration and hope to the enslaved peoples for a better future as well as for the preservation of freedom and peace in the rest of the world.

Respectfully yours,

Dr. H. K. Kocheff
Dr. Halin Kocheff, Chairman
Preparatory Committee of the AF ABN Congress.
